This cube just seems worse than others I tried for the same price

September 14, 2017

Verified Purchase

I use my cubes and teach people to complete Rubik's Cubes. When they can do it successfully without aid, I buy them their own cube as a present for ~$6. I buy different cubes and test them out in that price range before giving them away as a present. This cube just seems worse than others I tried for the same price. If you are able to get the Suvevic 3x3x3 Sticker Speed Cube Smooth Magic Cube Puzzle Enhanced Version for the same price as this, I would get that instead. This cube kinda feels like it's pre-lubricated with sand and it sounds like it also.
